

LINDA SPARACO: CHOCOLATIER, EMALYN SWEETS

Linda says, "I started giving my chocolates as gifts to family and friends who thought they were delicious. Looking around the room as I walked through the front door during the holidays, I'd see my families faces light up as they realized I had tons of chocolate with me. Everyone couldn't wait to taste what I had come up with, I'd always hear an argument over who got the last piece. All of our products are handmade. We blend all our chocolates from the finest domestic chocolates available." Take a closer look at just some of Linda's chocolates ---- very hard to resist ---- and even harder once you have tried them! They make great gifts too!! Place your order now for these special treats!
