SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME · JANUARY 16, 2022

From Fr. Shawn - An Update on the Traditional Latin Mass...

The priests who celebrate that Mass met with Bishop Caggiano recently. Two important points came from that meeting. First, the Traditional Latin Mass will not disappear from our Diocese. Second, the locations and how the recent mandates from Rome will be implemented are still under consideration. More guidelines may be announced from Rome within the next two months. Therefore, Bishop Caggiano is waiting for any additional news from Rome before he can make any decisions. The priests will meet with him again on March 2nd, and hopefully, we will have a better understanding of where the Traditional Latin Mass stands in the Diocese going forward.

Contribution Statements for your 2021 taxes are now available in the narthex listed alphabetically. If you do not find yours, please let Linda know, and she will contact you.

Health reminder: Over the last couple of weeks, the number of people who are sick with various illnesses has increased. Therefore, we remind anyone who feels sick in any capacity to please stay home. You are not obligated to attend Mass if you are sick, and it is not a sin that you have to confess later.

Reminder: Join us for the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily at 3 pm. On the 1st Saturday of the month, join us for the Rosary at 4 pm; on the 2nd-5th Saturdays, join us at 3:30 pm.

The Knights of Columbus Candlewood Lake Council would like to congratulate the following Brother Knights on their significant membership milestones as well as their dedicated service to the Knights of Columbus and the parish: Joseph W. O'Connor (58 years); Donald A. Perley (57 years), Terrance E. Petiprin (54 years), Louis J. Piskura, Jr. (39 years), Stephen J. Sebestyen (30 years), Thomas P. Nipper (1 year), and Robert A. Field (1 year).

Food Donations for the Brookfield Food Pantry are being collected at the parish. A donation bin is in the narthex under the bulletin board. Check brookfieldct.gov/social-services/pages/brookfield-food-pantry for their current list of needed items.
