ST. MARGUERITE BOURGEOYS – THE CHURCH AND THE SAINT

A Pilgrimage Through and With St. Marguerite

“Ora et Labora”

Behind the altar at St. Marguerite's is "The Holy Family" stained-glass window. In it we see an angel holding a banner with the phrase "Ora et Labora". In his instructional book, Wisdom of the Heart, Peter Kreeft explains that the Benedictine motto, 'ora et labora', (pray and work), reflects two intertwined aspects of our lives that are designed to gradually merge. This unity is perfected only in heaven, but it can be practiced while we are here on earth.

As our Christmas celebrations conclude, we now find ourselves back in "Ordinary Time", a time for spiritual growth through performing "ordinary" catholic practices like daily mass, bible study, and community service so that we may grow in our spiritual maturity.

Kreeft further adds, "we have been given Christ's single principle for improving this world. It is "'Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven'. We are to find God everywhere because He is everywhere... How do we find Him... we seek Him... we seek by listening..." We listen to Him in prayer. We are silent in God's presence.

He goes on to say that Mary serves as our role model. "We become like Mary in prayer, impregnated by the Holy Spirit. We are reborn and we inherit the kingdom of heaven." (Kreeft, Peter, Wisdom of the Heart – Chapter 7: Silence: The Language of the Heart, Tan Books, 2025).

The Holy Family - the School of Love
"They were holy because they placed God at the center of their family life, they loved and sacrificed for one another, and they radiated that love to others in the redemptive mission of the Word Incarnate." (EWTN, Dec. 28, Holy Family).

"The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork." Psalm 19:1 ESV

We are so fortunate to have our patroness, St. Marguerite, always in our midst as she exemplifies what it means to live an extraordinary catholic life.

Bishop Caggiano's 2026 Bishop's Appeal Message

My Dear Friends,

I come to you with a joyful and grateful heart, for the Holy Spirit is working powerfully in our midst. Over the last few years, you have heard me say that we are in the work of renewal — of bringing new life, both individually to our own discipleship and collectively to our common life as a Church.

Well, now we're beginning to see the fruits of those efforts, and those fruits are growing. Our Mass attendance is up 22 percent in the last three years. We have more seminarians than we've had in 30 years ... and much more.

This is the moment for us to continue to apply ourselves so we can do even more. For that, I need your help in supporting the ministries that are the foundation of our Church and in funding the new initiatives that are giving further and even greater life to our Church.

My friends, I urge you to open your heart and ask what it is that we can do as our next step in supporting what the Lord is doing. I am always grateful for your generosity, so please consider a sacrificial gift in support of the 2026 One in Christ Bishop's Appeal, which will allow the renewal to continue to grow. Then, we can become the light to those around us, and to all people, who will see the light that you and I have found in Jesus Christ.

Thank you and please give generously so that we can continue the good work that God has begun with you and me.

Thank you and may God bless you.

Sincerely in Christ,

frank j caggiano
