Bishop Caggiano's 2026 Bishop's Appeal Message

My Dear Friends,

I come to you with a joyful and grateful heart, for the Holy Spirit is working powerfully in our midst. Over the last few years, you have heard me say that we are in the work of renewal — of bringing new life, both individually to our own discipleship and collectively to our common life as a Church.

Well, now we're beginning to see the fruits of those efforts, and those fruits are growing. Our Mass attendance is up 22 percent in the last three years. We have more seminarians than we've had in 30 years ... and much more.

This is the moment for us to continue to apply ourselves so we can do even more. For that, I need your help in supporting the ministries that are the foundation of our Church and in funding the new initiatives that are giving further and even greater life to our Church.

My friends, I urge you to open your heart and ask what it is that we can do as our next step in supporting what the Lord is doing. I am always grateful for your generosity, so please consider a sacrificial gift in support of the 2026 One in Christ Bishop's Appeal, which will allow the renewal to continue to grow. Then, we can become the light to those around us, and to all people, who will see the light that you and I have found in Jesus Christ.

Thank you and please give generously so that we can continue the good work that God has begun with you and me.

Thank you and may God bless you.

Sincerely in Christ,

Frank J. Caggiano

ST. MARGUERITE BOURGEOYS – THE CHURCH AND THE SAINT

A Pilgrimage Through and With St. Marguerite

Matthew 16:18-20

18 And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. 19 I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

The Keys to the Kingdom

It is the stained-glass windows in our church that drawn us into the stories, the Gospel, the letters of Peter and Paul. We capture a visual of the lead players, their acts of mercy, and are drawn to the truths that they convey, mercy, hope, trust, love, charity, and so on.

Teachers, parents, and clergy realize these visual lessons, these icons, are the best teaching tool to augment the lessons we learn through sacred scripture. They help us and our students to gain a deeper understanding of the things in which we are encouraged to have faith, the truths, the mysteries, the history of Christianity and our Catholicism.

"During Medieval times, when most people were illiterate and unable to read religious texts themselves, stained-glass windows provided a visual representation of important biblical events and figures."

(<https://pathoftheholyspirit.com/the-meaning-behind-stained-glass-windows-in-catholic-churches/>). Much like in our liturgical calendar, colors have certain specific meaning – red for sacrifice and martyrdom, blue divine for love, heaven, purity, purple for royalty, and gold for heavenly glory.

In this window, named "The Keys of the Kingdom" we see the sheep and the lamb, these symbolize the Passover Lamb, the pascal lamb, the sacrificial lamb. And the little one, 'bound' to his master looks out at his people, and smiles at them as if beckoning them to share the love of his shepherd, our Lord Jesus Christ, and to follow Peter, the ruler of the flock.

He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you."

[Jesus] said to him, "Feed my sheep."

John 21:17
